

Brothers and Sisters,

Welcome Phoenixmasonry Masonic Museum and Library, I appreciate you taking your valuable time to visit our Library's website. As you will note, Phoenixmasonry Masonic Museum and Library website is composed of multiple areas, reflecting the existence of multiple rites and jurisdictions.

This website is Masonry's virtual space in the global web of information and we will post lectures, old documents, study programs, biographical sketches, and any kind of information of value to the Craft in any of its activities.

The library's facilities are geared towards supporting every aspect of Masonry - its history, philosophy, symbolism, ritual. Although we are committed to helping you to access all your informational needs about Masonry, we are similarly mindful of the fact that no library in the world can claim to be self-sufficient. In the event that you are unable to find what you are looking for, please do not give up, let's interact and help each other research for the information.

If you reside in Salt Lake City you may also bring your laptop in our Museum and Library and enjoy wireless network access to the Internet. I invite you to explore our website and trust that you will find our resources useful in meeting your research of the older known fraternity.
